Founder Challenges UFMCC to Grow

Rev. Elder Troy Perry, founder and moderator of UFMCC, received an enthusiastic response to the major pastoral letter he sent to UFMCC churches in October. Highlights of his letter follow:

In 26 years of travel as the founder of this denomination, I have never before seen people so spiritually hungry. It is my firm conviction that the lesbian and gay community stands poised on the threshold of the greatest spiritual awakening ever seen.

Twenty six years ago, God graciously gave me a vision, a powerful vision born of a personal, perhaps selfish need. As a gay man and as a Christian, I could see that God fully loved and accepted me just as I was: God wanted me to be a gay Christian! And I had the personal need to worship in a community with other lesbian and gay Christians. That vision became clearer as hundreds, then thousands, of sisters and brothers joined this new community of faith. After fully a quarter century of ministry, I am convinced that an even greater opportunity lies today within our grasp.

There has been an incredible response to the simple message that I have been preaching this past year: God did not create you so God could have someone to hate. Many people are hearing, for the first time, and with ears of faith, this message which we have preached over these past 26 years.

Rev. Troy Perry

The Holy Spirit is touching lives around the world. For the 26th time in our history, we have shown an increase in the membership of our denomination. For the 26th time in our history we have shown an increase of giving in our churches. It is mind-boggling to me to see such growth in the midst of the HIV/AIDS pandemic, with thousands of members lost. God's grace is sufficient as we continue to live and share the powerful truth that "God is greater than AIDS."

But we now have the opportunity to see even greater miracles happen in our churches. We have the opportunity to experience phenomenal growth by witnessing to our communities that God loves them even more than they can grasp. We must make a conscious choice to do everything in our power to reach the communities where we minister for Christ! To do that, we must be clear in our vision, steadfast in our faith, and not afraid of what may feel like radical change, required to reach our goal.

I want to challenge you again, as I did at our General Conference in 1991, by calling on all of us to double the size of each of our churches within ten years.

UFMCC Confronts the Right

UFMCC is leading efforts to mobilize the National Council of Churches (USA) to join in fighting the radical religious right.

"Our God, Too: Religious Communities Confronting the Radical Religious Right" is being sponsored at the NCC General Board meeting Nov. 12 in New Orleans, LA, by UFMCC and a coalition of lesbian/gay affirming groups within NCC member churches. The keynote speaker will be Rev. Mel White, former ghostwriter for Revs. Jerry Falwell and Pat Robertson who serves as UFMCC minister of justice and dean of Cathedral of Hope MCC, Dallas, TX.

"We go to the NCC meetings as evangelists for the healing of homophobia in the church," said Rev. Kittredge Cherry, national ecumenical officer. "UFMCC doesn't need their approval, but they do need to be warned about the dangers of the religious right and offered the opportunity to stand up for the human rights of all people."

Others in the UFMCC delegation will be Rev. Maggie Tanis, who served for several years on the executive board of the Hawaii Council of Churches; Rev. Dexter Brecht, pastor Vieux Carre' MCC, New Orleans; and Rev. Carolyn Mobley, associate pastor, MCC of the Resurrection, Houston, TX.

In addition, Rev. Cherry is coordinating the third annual national leadership gathering of lesbian/gay affirming Christian organizations in conjunction with the NCC meeting. Participants have registered from more than a dozen different denominations, including Protestant, Catholic and Orthodox groups. ❐

Resource Expo Launched

A Resource Expo will be featured at General Conference in Atlanta, GA July 23-30, 1995.

The Resource Expo will house booths that sell products for churches and their members. Its focus will be resources that directly enhance local church ministry, including brochures, books, and audio-visual materials. The Resource Expo will replace the area known as the Country Store at previous conferences.

"The name was changed to reflect the elders' call to be more ministry-oriented," said Ms. Elsa Martinez, UFMCC marketing assistant and chair of the Resource Expo Team at the UFMCC International Headquarters. ❐

Voice Mail Helps UFMCC Serve Churches

Many callers to UFMCC International Headquarters have noticed the state-of-the-art voice mail system installed several months ago to enhance service to local churches.

The voice mail system offers many advantages over the old equipment, which was so outdated that replacement parts were no longer available for repairs. The advantages of the new system include:

▼ Callers hear a beep while they are on hold. "It's more friendly to the consumer. I like hearing a beep while I'm on hold rather than dead air," one pastor said.

▼ Callers can leave a private, detailed message for the individual staff member that they want to reach. Under the old system, staff members received handwritten, abbreviated versions of their phone messages from the receptionist.

▼ Callers can reach staff members who are in the office when the switchboard is closed. Under the old system, it was impossible to get through to staff members unless the receptionist was on duty.

▼ Staff can retrieve their voice mail messages when the switchboard is closed, greatly enhancing ease of communication for staff who are travelling in different time zones.

The International Headquarters is continually striving to improve the configuration of the voice mail system to better serve local churches.

In order to make it even easier for people to reach UFMCC staff, here is a list of staff members and their extension numbers.

Special Deadline Set

Nov. 15 is the deadline for the upcoming double issue of Keeping in Touch.

A special combined issue will be published for December 1994 and January 1995. Be sure to plan ahead if you want to submit news articles or classified ads for this double issue. ❐

Translation Continues

While translation of UFMCC documents is being done in existing non-English speaking districts and areas, there are also people around the globe who continue to translate UFMCC literature. Recently, translated materials have been received in Russian and also additional materials in Polish.

The Board of World Church Extension is presently developing protocols on what should be translated, and determining what needs we can meet. "Ideally we would like to translate and professionally print all of UFMCC's literature in a variety of languages", says Rev. Elder Wilhelmina Hein, WCE interim administrator, "but we recognize also that our limited funds must be spent the best ways possible."

At the October General Council meeting, the UFMCC Bylaws in German were approved. Council members commented positively on the professionalism of the translation and production of these by members of Basisgemeinde MCC Hamburg. In addition, the first draft of a UFMCC AIDS ministry brochure in Danish was also received.

"These are just the beginning of what can be done with translation funds," commented Rev. Beverly Baptiste, chair of the International Concerns, Research and Development Division of General Council. Negotiations are continuing with churches in non-English speaking countries as to what they think should be translated next to facilitate ministry in that local church and culture. ❐

Rev. Perry Meets Church Heads

Rev. Elder Troy D. Perry, founder and moderator of UFMCC has accepted an invitation to the United Nations for World AIDS Day, Dec. 1. He and the chief executives from 175 U.S. denominations will gather in the Dag Hammarskjold Room of the United Nations to sign the Council Call in a ceremony arranged by the AIDS National Interfaith Network. The Council Call is a statement of commitment to respond to the AIDS pandemic with love, compassionate care, justice, prevention and action.

The ceremony will follow a formal luncheon at the New York headquarters of the United Methodist Church. ❐

New Staff Named

Two new people have recently joined the Fellowship staff.

Rev. Mel White was named to represent the UFMCC Board of Elders as minister of justice. The Elders asked Rev. White, former ghostwriter for Rev. Jerry Falwell and others in the radical right, to be "responsible for interfacing with other organizations and our churches on the radical right." The job description for this function will be considered during the March meeting of the Board of Elders.

Ms. Dana Cagle recently joined the staff of the UFMCC International Headquarters as executive assistant to the UFMCC director of administration, Mr. Ravi Verma.

Her duties include administrative support, human resource and office management, coordinating logistics for meetings and conferences, and management of corporate filing and retrieval system.

Ms. Cagle has a bachelor of science in criminal justice/sociology from the University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill and a master's degree in education from Boston University. She is currently a student at the southern California operating location of San Francisco Theological Seminary. She has 10 years' experience in the Air Force, where she was a security police officer and ROTC instructor. A former deacon at Divine Redeemer MCC, Glendale, CA, Ms. Cagle is student clergy at MCC Los Angeles, CA, and pastor of Free Spirit MCC at the California Institute for Women in Frontera. Her partner is Ms. Jeri Peterson. ❐

Lay Leaders Honored

The Commission on Laity wants to say "thank you" to some folks for a job well done.

At its recent meeting the COL Facilitating Council designed a program to bring honor and recognition to the work of the laity of our denomination. The COL will review all nominations and will present the plaques during General Conference in Atlanta, GA, in July 1995.

The Lay Representative of each district is responsible for the distribution of the nomination forms to each of the congregations in his/her district. Pastors and boards of directors are encouraged to consider which persons among their congregations they would like to see so honored. Once that determination is made, the nomination form should be returned to the following address prior to May 1, 1995: Ms. Wanda Floyd, P.O. Box 14051, RTR, NC 27709.

The three award categories are: The Laity Leadership Award, The Laity Service Award, and The Laity Faithfulness Award. ❐

Poland Offers Challenges

At its October meeting, the Board of World Church Extension moved to no longer list MCC in Poland as an active group.

"For almost a year now, both Rev. Lou Kavar, the previous administrator, and I have tried to communicate with the group with little success," says Rev. Elder Wilhelmina Hein, interim WCE administrator.

"There was no response to mail and telephone calls and other sources indicated, through the European District, that the group was not meeting. The Board of WCE remains committed to ongoing dialogue and correspondence with individual people in Poland, and is working on a process with the European District whereby we, together, can create a new and healthy foundation to grow in Poland." ❐

Mr. Frank M. Zerilli

Mr. Frank M. Zerilli died Oct. 12 in Riverhead, Long Island, NY, after a series of illnesses. He was 82.

Mr. Zerilli, a retired postal worker, was the father of Mr. Frank K. Zerilli, who has served at UFMCC International Headquarters since December 1974 as confidential assistant to the moderator. Mr. Zerilli supported his son's activism in UFMCC and in the gay/lesbian rights movement, and his relationship with Mr. Franklin Calvin.

Funeral services were held Oct. 16 in Riverhead, with Rev. Elder Troy Perry officiating.

Mr. Zerilli is survived by his wife, Betty; son, Frank; daughter, Gail; and sister, Mary.

Argentinian Student Clergy Enters Seminary

Mr. Alejandro Martinez, a member of MCC Buenos Aires, Argentina, is preparing to undertake further study towards UFMCC clergy licensure. Earlier this year Mr. Martinez was admitted to ISEDET, a seminary for graduate training, and he is undertaking continuing MCC work under the supervision of Rev. Roberto Gonzalez, the coordinator of church extension for South America. ❐

Samaritan Intensive Planned

A nine-day Samaritan College intensive offering all of the Samaritan proficiency courses will be held Jan. 14-22 at MCC San Francisco, CA.

"We feel that this type of educational opportunity is unique to the Samaritan experience," said Rev. Alan Eddington, Samaritan's educational facilitator for the Northwest District.

The course schedule will allow for each student to take at least two courses, and in some cases, three courses may be taken. Recognized religious and political leaders in the lesbian/gay/bisexual/transgender movement will be presenting evening sessions for all course registrants. A number of educational, off-site "field experiences" are planned to enhance and augment the classroom experience. For information on registration fees, housing, transportation, or inquiries, write: Rev. Alan M. Eddington, 510 Sanchez Street, San Francisco, CA 94114; 415/863-4434(work) or 415/431-9813 (fax). ❐

Excitement Builds For MCC in the Philippines

A substantial portion of the monies needed to send a trainer/teacher to the Philippines have been donated by UFMCC members, churches and districts who responsed to a recent appeal for funds.

Rev. Ed Paul, assistant district coordinator of the South Central District, will leave for Manila in early December, after receiving cross-cultural training in Los Angeles, CA. He will serve as trainer/teacher for the congregation and its three student clergy for three to six months. The ultimate goal is for the church to have indigenous leadership in 1995.

In recent weeks, MCC Manila has been under severe pressure. They were asked to leave their worship location at very short notice because the owner found out the church undertakes Holy Unions, and recent remarks by Cardinal Sin of the Philippines against gays and lesbians have stirred up homophobic reactions. As Rev. Richard Mickley, pastor, reported, "So there we sat, things packed, and weren't even allowed to hold services there anymore." A much appreciated check from UFMCC funds helped the church to find a new home. Anyone writing to the Manila church, please note the new address: 258 Singalong Street, Malate, Manila.

Rev. John Fowler, assistant district coordinator of the Australian District, visited the church from Sept. 24 to Oct. 4 and undertook visioning with them. He was able to be at the first worship service in the new location before flying home. Rev. Fowler reports that the church continues to struggle to meet needs for people from a variety of economic backgrounds. However, a beacon of hope is that soon there may be more than one MCC in the Philippines, as Rev. Mickley and other leaders respond to requests to also have services in Quezon City. ❐

Founder

I believe with all my heart that God desires us to grow! The Great Commission of Jesus is to "go and make disciples of all the nations...baptizing them...teaching them to observe all things that I have commanded you." We have never been commanded by Christ to be happy thinking of the church as small groups of our immediate friends.

In faith, I would like you to stop for just a moment and wonder about your own church, and how it will look when it doubles or triples in size. If your church transformed tomorrow, what would it take to accommodate this wonderful blessing? Growth takes faith, and faith requires action! Most importantly, faith always begins with a conscious choice to embrace that change and all its uncertainty. Each of us, whatever our role is, must now be willing to make that conscious choice and we must work to make our vision a reality!

It is my belief that now is the time for that next step of faith for the Universal Fellowship of Metropolitan Community Churches.

I have shared with you my hopes and dreams for the future of the Universal Fellowship of Metropolitan Community Churches, and just a glimpse of our commitment to this bold challenge. Now would you share yours? What are your dreams for the future of your particular church? For the Fellowship? How do you feel the Fellowship can be supportive of growth initiatives within your church? And, most importantly, what are your goals for the next ten years?

As Jesus said more than once, and as all of us in our Fellowship have demonstrated time and time again, "All things are possible!"
